Goodwill is Coming to West Jordan Town Center in West Jordan, Utah

(December 17, 2019) – Weingarten Realty (NYSE: WRI) announced that Goodwill is leasing at West Jordan Town Center in West Jordan, Utah.

The Goodwill store will offer shoppers a new source for affordable, gently used clothing and household items, and bring 20-25 new full- and part-time jobs to West Jordan. The new leased store is 15,069 total square feet and features approximately 10,000 square feet of retail space. Remaining space will be used for processing donations

“We are very excited for this new opportunity in West Jordan,” stated Bill Collins, vice president of retail. “Donors may think they’re just cleaning out their closet, but giving gently used items to Goodwill, also gives someone a chance to change their life,” he said. According to Collins, Goodwill employees learn valuable skills that benefit them throughout their careers -- skills like customer service, cashiering, time management, teamwork, and goal setting. Goodwill is also able to offer team members career coaching services providing additional learning and support opportunities in navigating their career and enhancing their job satisfaction and success.

Perhaps most importantly, shoppers will be supporting Easterseals-Goodwill’s mission in Utah: proceeds from Goodwill store sales help them start new programs and enhance existing programs, such as senior community service employment program, Provo early intervention program, children’s enrichment classes and youth transition services.
